SUNDAY READINGS

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 9, 2020

First Reading: 1 Kings 19:9a, 11-13a

After fleeing from the revenge of the King of Israel, Elijah hid in a cave, but at the command of God, he went outside and stood on a mountain. There the Lord came to him, not in the wind nor in the earthquake, but in a "tiny whispering sound."

Second Reading: Romans 9:1-5

Paul is deeply pained because the Jews - in spite of everything that has been given to them - have rejected Christ.

Gospel: Matthew 14:22-33

Matthew vividly recounts the event of Jesus walking on the water. When the disciples see this, they are terrified, and Jesus chastises them for their fear. Peter begs Christ to let him walk on the water; he is at first brave but begins to sink and loses faith, crying out, "Lord save me!" Christ rescues him for his faltering faith.

LITURGICAL WORSHIP AIDS

Entrance Antiphon

Look to your covenant, O Lord, and forget not the life of your poor ones forever. Arise, O God, and defend your cause, and forget not the cries of those who seek you.

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore, I ask blessed Mary Ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

Responsorial Psalm

Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Profession of Faith (Nicene Creed)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen

Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who come in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

(For those who are watching from home)

A Prayer of Spiritual Communion

Jesus, really present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the altar, since I cannot now receive thee under the sacramental veil, I beseech thee, with a heart full of love and longing, to come spiritually into my soul through the Immaculate Heart of thy most Holy Mother, and to abide with me, thou in me, and I in thee, in time and in eternity. Amen

Communion Antiphon

O Jerusalem, glorify the Lord, who gives you your fill of finest wheat.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the Power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

COVID-19 and Your Priests

A day after a Sacred Heart July 17 funeral, concelebrated by Fr. Bill and Fr. Jay, an out of town family member of the deceased, in attendance at church that day, announced that tests he and his spouse had undergone, showed that they were positive for Coronavirus. Fr. Brill and Fr. Jay, wearing masks while in church, had briefly greeted the man and his wife, 6 feet away, without physical contact. Fr. Bill was also in the funeral car with the deceased's widower, who had sat next to the infected family member, during the liturgy. The question arose whether Fr. Jay, and especially Fr. Bill, being in the car with the widower (who tested negative) should quarantine. Fr. Bill's physician said it was not necessary, and the Diocese of Harrisburg, after consultation, has agreed. The funeral director, who drove the car, and interacted with the family, reported that his girlfriend works as a nurse in the medical tents at Holy Spirit Hospital, Camp Hill, PA, doing nose swabs and treats COVID patients while wearing full-body protective gear. She is on "the front lines" of all this, he said, and she said quarantining for him was not necessary either given the limited contact that he had with the infected person, a member of the extended family. The funeral home is continuing full operations, without quarantining. Obviously, full precautions will continue in church as we exercise due diligence and vigilance, for the good of all. Let us pray for one another, especially for those who have died from the disease, and for grieving family members, caregivers, and those currently suffering from COVID-19. And pray for your priests, who as clergy are considered essential workers and are very much on the front lines as well.

MORE CLEANERS ARE NEEDED FOR 4:00 PM Saturday and 7:30 AM MASSES!!!

*If you are unable to fill your assigned duty please try to switch weeks with someone or call someone to substitute for you. Ushers and Greeters are reminded to be at church at least ½ hour before the start of Mass to avoid any congestion of parishioners in the Vestibule or outside of the church.
