FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly
Most Holy Name Catholic Church, Garfield, NJ
Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
June 16, 2024

“...We walk by faith, not by sight. Yet we are courageous and we would rather leave the body and go home to the Lord. Therefore, we aspire to please him, whether we are at home or away. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil.”

Saint Paul tells us like it is. There is a lot of talk today about transparency and accountability. One day, sooner or later, the Lord will call us for our personal accounting. As we ask God's grace to help us get to heaven we know that our book of life is to be put on the table. Some pages we might want to delete, and others to magnify to assure the promised reward. When we attend a wake or funeral, our thoughts and prayers should be directed to asking the Lord's mercy and forgiveness for the deceased, not just to speak about their character and accomplishments. It is our faith in a merciful loving God that allows us to approach Him with confidence. As we pray for others and their salvation, we ask that they intercede for us.

First Reading: Ezekiel 17:22-24

God will restore the kingdom of Judah, as symbolized by the cedar. The deed is emphasized by the words, “As I, the Lord have spoken, so will I do.”

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:6-10

Paul acknowledges “that we are, in a sense, away from the Lord while in this life and bound to our bodies.” We will be fully united with God in the next life, if we please him in this life.

Gospel: Mark 4:26-34

The reign of God is compared to a mustard seed which is the smallest of seeds yet grows to become the largest of shrubs. Similarly, God's community grows gradually until it becomes large and strong.
