FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly
Most Holy Name Catholic Church, Garfield, NJ
The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
(Corpus Christi)
June 2, 2024

“While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, and said, ‘Take it, this is my body.’ Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, ‘this is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine, until the day I drink it new in the kingdom of God.’”

With these words Saint Mark concludes the last supper and they left for Gethsemane. At every mass, as the priest, in the person of Christ, takes, breaks, blesses and tells me that Christ becomes present in his hands and on the altar. What does this gesture and these words do to me? I look upon the sacred species and cup of blessing, and acknowledge my belief that Jesus is now present in the sacrament of His Body and Blood. The succeeding prayers are leading me to the moment when I can eat and drink the gift of Holy Communion. A miracle has taken place. In my prayer I ask the Lord to help me not to take this special moment casually or routinely. The Lord wants to come to me. I need Him, and who am I that He should pick me out for this gift? I echo the question of Elizabeth ‘How is it that He comes to me?’ I am His beloved and He wants to be with me.

First Reading: Exodus 24:3-8

Moses explained to the people the commandments he had received from God. Upon hearing them, the entire community immediately agreed they would do as God had told them. Moses then sacrificed young bulls and sprinkled the people with their blood, calling it the blood of the covenant they had made.

Second Reading: Hebrews 9:11-15

Jesus did not offer God the blood of sacrifices, but instead he offered up his own blood to cleanse all people of the transgressions they had committed under the first covenant with God. Christ instead brought a new covenant, which, if kept, would lead to eternal life.

Gospel: Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

Jesus sent two of his disciples to prepare the Passover supper. During the meal he blessed bread and offered it to them saying, “This is my body.” He then offered them wine and called it his blood, “the blood of the covenant, to be poured out on behalf of many.”
