FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS
HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly
33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 18, 2018

“Brothers and sisters: Every priest stands daily at his ministry, offering frequently those same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But this one offered one sacrifice for sins, and took His seat forever at the right hand of God. Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer offering for sin.”

Jesus is our high priest. When we come to mass our priest leads us in prayer, but he acts only in the person of Christ. It is Jesus who offers the sacrifice of Calvary. Sometimes we know the priest quite well. At times a visitor or missionary celebrates the Eucharist for us. How special it is that we have someone to, in the words of St. Peter, 'to lead us to God.'

May we reflect for a moment on the person of the priest. Pray for him, offer him your friendship and support, express your gratitude for his role in leading, teaching, preaching and living the gospel. Encourage others to follow Christ on the service of the community. Remember your priests who have died, asking the Lord to reward them for their ministry. Although a priest is often at our side at moments of sickness and death, it is often said that the priest dies alone. Pray for priests.

First Reading: Daniel 12:1-3

Daniel discusses the end of the world, a time when the dead shall rise and everyone will be judged. He warns that some shall “be an everlasting horror and disgrace.” But he promises that some will live forever, and the wise will shine brightly to lead others to justice.

Second Reading: Hebrews 10:11-14, 18

Priests repeatedly offered sacrifices that were unable to take away sin. But through Jesus' one sacrifice, our sins were forgiven, leaving no need for other offerings.

Gospel: Mark 13:24-32

Jesus told his disciples that many signs would be seen before the end of the world. He explained that the earth would pass away but his words would not. He also told them that neither the angels nor himself, but only his Father knew when this would take place.

ATTENTION COOKIE BAKERS

St. Jude Women's Guild is in need of as many bakers as possible for our Annual Christmas Cookie Walk on December 8, 2018. Ruth Hower has been making phone calls, but in the event we missed you on our list, please consider helping us out by baking cookies for our fundraiser. We ask bakers to bake 12 dozen of their best cookie recipe. The 12 dozen should be all the same kind. The social hall will be open for cookie drop off on Friday, December 7, 2018 from 9:00am to 6:30pm. Cookies can also be dropped off on Saturday morning, between 7:00am and 8:00am. If you have any questions or if you are unable to deliver your cookies, please call Joyce Price, 717-994-0209. She will arrange for someone to pick your cookies up. Thanks to all our expert cookie bakers.

Survivors' Compensation Program

Bishop Ronald W. Gainer announced this past week that the Diocese of Harrisburg is moving forward with the development of a Survivors' Compensation Program for victims of clergy sexual abuse. The Diocese has engaged attorney Kenneth Feinberg and his associate, Camille Biros, to administer the program. Mr. Feinberg specializes in administering similar programs and has successfully run the Archdiocese of New York's Independent Reconciliation and Compensation Fund, as well as the 9/11 Victim Compensation Fund. The Diocese pledges that the resources for this fund will not come from the money you so generously donate to Sacred Heart of Jesus and to the Diocese. The money for this program will come from the Diocese's reserve, unrestricted Diocesan accounts and the yield from the Diocese's investments. In his message he also announced a way for parishioners to send him questions. The press release can be viewed on line at <https://www.hbgdiocese.org/statement-regarding-survivors-compensation-program/>. To view a video message from Bishop Gainer on the Survivors' Compensation Program, please visit www.youthprotectionhbg.com/survivor-assistance.
